PHOSPHORUS USES TO KILL COCKROACH

Several remedies have proven successful in combating cockroaches. Fumigation is successful when the pests are in a building or room which can be tightly closed. Ordinarily, however, it is not necessary to go to the trouble and expense of fumigating. Cockroaches are fond of materials containing phosphorus although they are very wary of ordinary poisoned baits. Advantage is taken of this fondness for phosphorus in the use of so-called "phosphorous cockroach paste." Practically all drug stores have some brand of phosphorous paste for sale. This material is spread on pieces of paper or cardboard which are placed in locations frequented by the roaches. Another method of destroying cockroaches, which originated in Australia, consists in mixing one part of plaster of Paris with three or four parts of flour. This is placed in a small dish with another small dish nearby containing water. A piece of cardboard is placed between the two dishes so that it is convenient for the cockroaches to eat the flour mixture and pass the dish containing the water, from which they drink and die as a result that the plaster of Paris is set in the insect's stomach and intestines. Another remedy consists in the use of powdered borax. This should be used freely, sprinkling it in cracks wherever there is opportunity for the cockroaches to hide. The pests seem to object to borax and when it is liberally used it is said that they soon disappear.—A. W. Morrill.

CHANDLER NEWS NOTES

GRADUATES VISIT CHANDLER

Chandler was visited by a host of Tempe Normal people on Friday afternoon. It required fifteen cars to accommodate the members of the graduating class, and several instructors. During their short stay in Chandler they were received and entertained at the Hotel San Marcos. Dr. A. J. Chandler, W. H. Robinson and a delegation of ladies from the Woman's club formed the reception committee. Viewing Chandler and the surrounding country from the roof garden and dancing, made the time seem all too short. At 6:15, the happy crowd departed with a last rousing yell for Dr. Chandler and the Woman's Club.

COWS FOR CHANDLER

Fashion Hints

NEVER SO PRETTY WERE TUB FROCKS

Not within the memory of woman have tub dresses been so pretty in design and color as they are this year, despite the scarcity of dyes. The summer girl includes in her wardrobe this model of sheer white and canary-colored lawn edged with narrow bands of lace insertion. The dress is made in semi-princess effect, with sides and back being held in with a girle of black moire ribbon. In medium size it requires 3 yards 36-inch plain and 4½ yards 36-inch figured lawn.

DEATH OF MOTHER

A. T. Morgareidge on Friday received the sad news of the death of his mother at her home in Wyoming. Mr. Morgareidge at once left for that place.

brain power for their composition, though she may employ a secretary to do the manual labor if she sees fit to pay one from her own pocket; she must replenish her wardrobe both with gowns for gala attire and with dust coats; she must economize, for the interest on $5000 even at 8 per cent is but $400.00 per annum and we live in a state of magnificent distances.

A woman with these qualifications could secure an excellent salary and an enviable position in the business world. If she works for the federation she receives naught but the "honor" of her position and the approval of her conscience that she is aiding a good cause. Surely it is unjust to ask any woman, whatever her financial status, to pay for the bare necessities of her journey—railroad fare and hotel bills—we do not wish the matter of personal income to be a deciding factor in our choice of a state president—for in addition to the above business qualifications we wish her to be a liberal minded woman of high ideals, that there may be incalculable in the club over which she presides the thought that the great work they are doing lies not so much in the knowledge of art, literature or science which they may absorb, the culture which they acquire, the poor they

Mrs. T. M. Elder, president; Mrs. John F. Barker, vice president; Mrs. Harry Bennett, treasurer; Mrs. A. J. Bellas, secretary; Mrs. George Gushing, auditor.

The Harmony club at its annual business meeting Wednesday elected officers for the coming year. Although Mrs. Elder protested to again being chosen president, her objections were finally overcome and she agreed to serve the club she has headed for more than twelve years for another season. A competent executive board was elected to act with Mrs. Elder.

In addition to the election quite a lot of business was transacted at the last meeting for the year. It was decided to hold parliamentary drill in connection with the meetings in the future, the drill to be conducted by the chairman.

Mrs. Elder announced that she would shortly call a meeting of the board to arrange for a bazaar which will be held fair week.

Mrs. Henry Baswitz submitted the report of the philanthropic committee. A beautiful crystal fern dish was presented to the president as a mark of the esteem in which she is held by the members of the organization. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Harry J. Bennett and Mrs. Elder in a few words thanked the club for its appreciation of her work among them.

The club will hold "Gentlemen's Evening," Friday at the home of Mrs. Baswitz, 624 North Third street.

The Woman's club is contemplating a new department which will be a branch of the Art and Literature department and be devoted to the study of the poets. Mrs. R. J. Elliot will be in charge should the section be established. The present plan is to hold the meetings the first and third Wednesday morning. The American poets will probably receive consideration before the holiday season and after Christmas the English poets will be the study.

The Business Girl's club will hold a social gathering Monday evening at Eastlake Park. The club is planning a "Jitney Circus" at the Young Women's Christian Association on the evening of June 15, the proceeds to be used to send two delegates to the Y. convention at Asilomar in August.

Disbanding with the intention of meeting in the autumn for "a busy year of helpful, happy work," the Orange-wood-Ramona club held its last meeting of the season Wednesday and completed its left over business. Although this was the last meeting as a club, the members expect to gather during the summer and social sessions will be given an added interest in the way of readings and an occasional program.
